SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Applicants should retain a copy of this page for their records.

Additional Testing Required for Certain Positions: Physical/Medical examinations and/or drug and alcohol tests may be required for certain positions. Failure to participate in any required examinations and/or tests will negatively affect your employment eligibility and/or status.

Former State or Local Government Retirees: Section 150 of the Civil Service Law of New York State prohibits retired state or local employees from being rehired by the state or a political subdivision and receives pension benefits while employed. Applicants who are receiving service retirement benefits from New York State, Municipal or Political Subdivision Retirement System must have approval under Section 211 or 212 of the Retirement and Social Security Law to protect their current service benefits.

Post-Employment Restrictions: Post-employment restrictions apply to all State Officers and Employees subject to Public Officers Law Section 73. They apply to part-time and seasonal employees, and apply equally regardless of the duration of employment while with New York State. For the two year period immediately following separation from State service, former State Officers and Employees are prohibited from:

- a. Appearing or practicing, regardless of compensation, before their former agency, and
- b. Receiving compensation on behalf of a client in relation to a matter before their former agency.

State Officers and Employees may also be subject to a "reverse two-year bar" that requires State officers and employees to recuse themselves from matters involving their former private sector employers for two years after entering State service.

The "lifetime bar" prohibits a former State Officer or Employee from providing services, regardless of compensation, and from rendering services for compensation, in relation to any case, proceeding, application or transaction with respect to which the former employee was directly concerned and in which he or she personally participated or which was under his or her active consideration while in State service.

Unemployment Insurance: I understand that I cannot collect Unemployment Insurance benefits from a prior or new claim once I begin employment with the NYS Department of Labor. I also understand that if I falsely claim benefits for days I worked, I may be subject to discipline, dismissal, criminal prosecution and/or imprisonment. I also understand that if I have an outstanding Unemployment Insurance overpayment, a repayment schedule will be arranged for me.

Department of Labor policies

The Department of Labor has certain department-specific policies that you, as a prospective employee, should be aware of:

Political Activities: Department policy as well as state and federal statutes govern political activities of state employees. The federal Hatch Act prohibits employees working in federally-funded positions from being candidates for partisan elective office.

Outside Employment: Department policy generally prohibits employees from engaging in any occupational field licensed/regulated by the Department of Labor. Should you accept a position with the Department, you cannot be employed in any occupational field licensed/regulated by the Department of Labor. However, certain part-time employees may be eligible to receive a waiver of this prohibition upon application. If applicable, please consult with the Personnel Bureau for further information on the requirements and process for obtaining such a waiver.

Personal privacy protection law notification

The information you are providing on this application is requested by the Department of Labor and will be maintained with your personal history file if hired. The principal purpose of collecting this information is to determine eligibility for initial and continued employment. This information may also be used in administering employee benefit programs and will be used in accordance with Section 96(1) of the Public Officers Law. Failure to provide the requested information may hinder your possible hiring and the subsequent administration of your employee benefits.
